THE DANCE OF BAGHEERA

Bagheera was the black panther who could climb trees, or creep silently and quite unseen in the shadows by night. He was the crafty and 、 hunter, brave and enduring. Although he could be fierce and terrible when he liked, he had a kind heart, and he taught Mowgli how to hunt and get his food.
For the Bagheera Dance each Cub becomes a panther. The Pack being in the Parade Circle, each Cub moves along in a crouching position, looking out to the right and left for game to hunt. Suddenly game is in sight. Every Cub squats down, turning his head and gazing towards the centre of the circle, where he must imagine there is a deer feeding. In order not to be seen, he quietly gets on to all fours, and turns towards the centre, and then crawls backwards a few paces, in order to get a little farther away from the deer, so as not to frighten him. Then every Cub begins to crawl slowly towards the centre. As they get nearer, all creep closer to the ground and move slowly. When they get near, all lie flat till the leader says "Now!" when they all spring forward on to the imaginary deer with a yell, seize him and tear him to pieces. They all fall outwards and run jumping back to their places in the Parade Circle, carrying and biting imaginary lumps of deer meat. During the dance every Cub must watch the leader, and instantly do the same thing he does. There must be plenty of space for this Dance to be effective. It is 100 percent better out of doors.
Notes:
1. The 'crouching position' is first standing on your feet, bending your body over with your hands loose in front of you, not quite touching the ground.
\2. When you 'squat', it is simpler to get down on all fours.
3. It is worth providing something to represent the deer, even if it is only a paper bag or a piece of crumpled-up brown paper.
4. Choose one of the Sixers as leader. The Pack must realize tha the success of the Dance largely depends upon each Cub exactly following his leader's movements and being careful not to get ahead of him.
