Tonight we are learning about knots. What are they called? What do they do?
5-40 10mins	Steam release- Match the knot Each Cub is given a picture of a knot with the name on it. Scattered around the hall a picture that illustrates the use of that knot. On go the Cubs must run around and find the picture that corresponds to that knot. When they have found it ,they must sit in a circle and Akela can explain what knot they have a what it is used for.	Cards – one with a picture and name of a knot and one with a picture of the use of that knot	Akela CI
We all know the story of the three little pigs. What were the houses made of? Bricks,Straw,Sticks
5-50 10mins	Active game – House Builders Cubs line up in relay at the end of the hall. The CI stands a distance away holding a beanbag (brick). The first Cub balances a board on his/her head (roof tile). On go the Cub must walk towards the CI who will throw the beanbag (brick) to the Cub who must try and catch it. If successful he/she continues towards the CI, hands the beanbag (brick) over and runs back to the starting line with the board (tile) in his hand, for the next Cub to start. The second Cub has a turn until all have had a turn. If the Cub catches the brick they get a point, if he/she misses the catch, the CI must collect the brick and the Cub continues. The Cub with the most points, wins.	Balancing Board and Beanbag	Rikki CI
Lets help the 3 little pigs build their houses before the big bad wolf comes
6-00 15mins	Team Game – Get the little pig to his home Have pictures of the 3 little pigs, straw, straw house, bricks, brick house, sticks and stick house. Have a set of pictures for each team. Cubs to run up find a picture and using a specific knot, need to tie the little pig to one of the materials used to make the house. The next Cub runs up and attaches the house to the material using a different knot etc. Once all the pigs have been joined to their houses and material, the team shows the Scouter who checks the knots for accuracy. The knots used will depend on the ability of the Cub. Young Cubs=reef knot, older Cub=figure of 8	Pictures of the 3 little pigs story (attached)	Akela Cobweb CI
Oh no the wolf is coming. We need something to chase him away
6-15 15mins	Handcraft – Make a Catapult Instructions attached	See Instructions	All
Now the little pigs need rescuing. Let's use the knots we learnt about to do this.
6-30 10mins	Game – Rescue Relay Divide the Pack into 2 teams who line up 3m away from a Cub. Each of the Cubs in the team are given a short rope. On go the Cubs tie the short ropes together with sheet bends. Once long enough the line is thrown to the Cub sitting waiting, who ties it around his/her waist and ties a bowline. Once, tied the team pulls the Cub back over the line while holding onto the sides of the cardboard box.	Ropes Cardboard box per team	Akela CI
The real story of the 3 little pigs. Do you want to know it?
6-45 5mins	Yarn – The Real Story of the 3 little pigs – A sneeze and a cup of sugar	Yarn sheet	Rikki
All the pigs are rescued and are safe and sound in their house. Now its time for us to go to our houses

Make a Catapult

Materials

1. 6 Wooden dowel sticks 90cm each
2. 9 large rubber bands
3. Small plastic cup
4. Punch
5. Scissors
6. Smallballs, pom poms, marshmallows

Use three of the wooden dowels and make them into a triangle by attaching the corners with rubber bands.

Then the next three dowels you also attach as a triangle, but standing up like a tepee or a pyramid. Add one at a time going upward from each corner of the first triangle. Then connect them with a rubber band in the center on top. IT needs to have a lot of tension.

Next, take your plastic cup and punch three holes in it- evenly spaced around the top of the cup. Cut three rubber bands in half and tie them through the holes in the cup. The other ends of the rubber bands need to be tied to the top part of the catapult, and two bottom corners. You'll need some bigger rubber bands to make this work. If your rubber bands are not long enough (mine were not) tie on three more runner bands to the ends so they can stretch all of the way down the dowels. The cup and rubber bands together create a type of throwing arm.

Put a small ball, such as a ping pong ball, into the cup, pull back and let it fly!!! You have now finished building a catapult. Everyone will be impressed. (And you don't have to tell them how easy it was!) It is seriously so much fun!

Yarn – A sneeze and a cup of sugar

THIS IS THE REAL STORY Way back in Once Upon a Time time, I was making a birthday cake for my dear old granny. I had a terrible sneezing cold. I ran out of sugar. So I walked down the street to ask my neighbor for a cup of sugar. Now this neighbor was a pig. And he wasn't too bright either. He had built his whole house out of straw. Can you believe it? I mean who in his right mind would build a house of straw? So of course the minute I knocked on the door, it fell right in. I didn't want to just walk into someone else's house. So I called, "Little Pig, Little Pig, are you in?" No answer. I was just about to go home without the cup of sugar for my dear old granny's birthday cake. That's when my nose started to itch. I felt a sneeze coming on. Well I huffed. And I snuffed. And I sneezed a great sneeze. And you know what? The whole darn straw house fell down. And right in the middle of the pile of straw was the First Little Pig - dead as a doornail. He had been home the whole time. It seemed like a shame to leave a perfectly good ham dinner lying there in the straw. So I ate it up. Think of it as a cheeseburger just lying there. I was feeling a little better. But I still didn't have my cup of sugar. So I went to the next neighbor's house. This neighbor was the First Little Pig's brother. He was a little smarter, but not much. He has built his house of sticks. I rang the bell on the stick house. Nobody answered. I called, "Mr. Pig,

Mr. Pig, are you in?" He yelled back. “Go away wolf. You can't come in. I'm shaving the hairs on my chinny chin chin." I had just grabbed the doorknob when I felt another sneeze coming on. I huffed. And I snuffed. And I tried to cover my mouth, but I sneezed a great sneeze. And you are not going to believe this, but the guy's house fell down just like his brother's. When the dust cleared, there was the Second Little Pig - dead as a doornail. Wolf's honor. Now you know food will spoil if you just leave it out in the open. So I did the only thing there was to do. I had dinner again. Think of it as a second helping. I was getting awfully full. But my cold was feeling a little better. And I still didn't have that cup of sugar for my dear old granny's birthday cake. So I went to the next house. This guy was the First and Second Little Pig's brother. He must have been the brains of the family. He had built his house of bricks. I knocked on the brick house. No answer. I called, "Mr Pig, Mr. Pig, are you in?" And do you know what that rude little porker answered? "Get out of here, Wolf. Don't bother me again." 2 Talk about impolite! He probably had a whole sackful of sugar. And he wouldn't give me even one little cup for my dear sweet old granny's birthday cake. What a pig! I was just about to go home and maybe make a nice birthday card instead of a cake, when I felt my cold coming on. I huffed And I snuffed. And I sneezed once again. Then the Third Little Pig yelled, “And your old granny can sit on a pin!" Now I'm usually a pretty calm fellow. But when somebody talks about my granny like that, I go a little crazy. When the cops drove up, of course I was trying to break down this Pig's door. And the whole time I was huffing and puffing and sneezing and making a real scene. The rest as they say is history. The news reporters found out about the two pigs I had for dinner. They figured a sick guy going to borrow a cup of sugar didn't sound very exciting. So they jazzed up the story with all of that "Huff and puff and blow your house down". And they made me the Big Bad Wolf. That's it - the real story. I was framed. ²
