2:40 pm 10 min	Activity 1: Steam Release – Fire and Firefighters Divide the pack into two teams. One team are FIRE and the other FIREFIGHTERS. The teams stand at opposite ends of the playing area and facing each other. Draw a line in front of each team. On "go" the FIRE comes forward and tries to get as near to the FIREFIGHTERS as they can. The Scouter blows a whistle which is the signal for the FIREFIGHTERS to rush forward and try to put out (touch) as many fires as they can. When a FIRE is put out (touched) he/she must join the FIREFIGHTERS. After two or three times the original teams change over and the game begins again. Those not caught by the end of the game are the winners.	Rebekah

3:15 pm 5 min	Activity 4: Clumps The Cubs are scattered around the playing area (fire). On go, they run around. The Pack Scouter calls a number, e.g. "FOUR" and the Cubs must immediately get into clumps of four (fire sticks together and grows). If "ONE" is called, the Cubs must sit on the floor. Any Cubs not quick enough to form groups lose lives (the fire dies). The winning Cub is the one who has lost the least lives.	Rebekah
3.20 pm 10 min	Activity 5: Play acting  group photograph Equipment: none The leader tells the Pack that he/she is a Press Photographer looking for a special photograph for his/her paper. A subject is called out and each Six has a few moments to think about this and to get into frozen positions representing the photograph. On the word "flash", they must remain still while the best 'photographic group' is selected. Ideas for photographs might include: • An emergency operation; • A dentist's chair and waiting room; • A wrestling match; • Winning the big rugby match; • A storm at sea; • Shoe shop; • A circus ring. This game of course gives opportunity for a little leadership by the Sixer and teaches the Cubs the beginnings of working together as a team.	Pia
3:30 pm 10 min	Activity 6: Kims game touch Put a variety of items into a bucket of water and cover the bucket with a cloth. Have one bucket for each Six (with the same items). One at a time the Cubs will run up and the Scouter will tell the Cub what to find by feeling around in the water. When the item has been found, the Cub will take it out of the bucket and run back to their Six. The next Cub will run up and get told of a different item to find in the water and so on until all items have been found.	Nila

4:00 pm 10 min	Activity 9: Drip, Drip Splash Similar to Duck-Duck-Goose • Cubs to sit in a circle • Assign "It": One player stands up with a small sponge soaked in water or a cup filled with water. • "It" walks around the outside of the circle, lightly trickling or tapping a tiny bit of water onto each player's head and saying "Drip". • When "It" chooses a target, they pour or dump the rest of the water onto that person's head and shout "Splash" (or "Drop" / "Drench"). • The splashed player jumps up and chases "It" once around the circle. "It" tries to run all the way around and sit in the empty spot before getting tagged. • Next round: If "It" is caught, they go again. If "It" makes it to the empty seat safely, the splashed player becomes the new "It".	Rebekah
4:10 pm 10 min	Activity 10: Fire Rescue A Cub is blindfolded and sitting on a chair armed with a full water pistol, they are the Firefighters. As quietly as possible, the other Cubs (Fire) have to set the house on fire When the Firefighter senses a Fire is near, they must try and spray them whilst blindfolded. If the Cub is hit, they are out.	Pia
4:20 pm 5 min	Activity 9: Make a Rain storm As a Pack, start by tapping one finger on each hand together. Keep adding fingers until everyone is clapping (the storm). The storm goes away as you take one finger away at a time.	Nila
