Task 43: 10 Wood Craft Signs
Task 44: Follow a Woodcraft trail

Gold Wolf:
Task 50: Lay a trail for other to follow

Game/ Activity:	STEAM REALEASE: North East South West	Leader: Sahi	Time: 17:45
Instructions:	Assign sides of playing area a compass direction: North, East, South, and West, add in North East, North West, South East, South West. Leader calls out the Direction, Cubs run to the direction called as fast as they can.

Game/ Activity:	Ladders	Leader: Sahi	Time: 17:55
Instructions:	Players split into pairs of equal size or ability. Pairs sit on the floor facing each other in two long parallel lines with their legs stretched straight out, touching feet with their partner. The gaps between each pair's legs form the "rungs" of the ladder. Each pair is given a number The leader stands at one end of the room and calls out a number: Both players in that pair stand up as quickly as possible. They run down the middle of the "ladder," carefully stepping over the legs of the other sitting pairs. When they reach the far end of the ladder, they run around the outside of the sitting players, heading back toward the opposite end. They enter the middle of the ladder again from the other end and race back to their original spot. The first runner to sit back down in their original spot with their legs stretched out earns a point for their team

If you get lost in the wilderness:

- STAY PUT! Hug a tree or don't move unless there is impending danger. If you must move leave a clear trail for rescuers to follow.
- Put a brightly colored bandana or other clothing high in a tree or someplace visible fromt he air
- Signal planes and helicopters using a mirror or shiny object
- Use a whistle to attract the attention of searchers, don't yell unless you have no other way. Yelling dehydrates and tires you out, and is often not effective.
- Save your energy and STAY CALM! Panicing will only make it harder to find you!
